The Postdoctoral Referral Service

The Psychoanalytic Society of the Postdoctoral Program, Inc.

The Postdoctoral Referral Service is a community service provided by the Psychoanalytic Society, which is composed of graduates, faculty and supervisors of the New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis.

All participating therapists hold Ph.D. degrees, are licensed psychologists and are graduates or advanced candidates of the New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis.

The Psychoanalytic Society is independently incorporated and separate from New York University.

The Postdoctoral Referral Service provides referrals to highly trained practitioners in their private offices at moderate fees, which are determined on a sliding scale.

► PSYCHOLOGISTS/PSYCHOANALYSTS

► PRIVATE PRACTICE SETTINGS

► MODERATE COST TREATMENT

► IMMEDIATE REFERRAL

The Postdoctoral Referral Service arranges an immediate appointment for a consultation, with no waiting period.

Therapists will see you in their private offices, located in Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, Westchester, Long Island and New Jersey. You may request a location convenient for you.

All our therapists meet eligibility requirements for insurance coverage for psychotherapy and psychoanalysis.

We offer consultations to corporate Employee Assistance Programs, School Personnel, Unions and other agencies, whose employees or members are seeking assistance in dealing with personal and work related problems.

Speakers are available for lectures or group discussions on a variety of psychological topics through our Public Information Service.
