THE PSYCHOANALYTIC SOCIETY

is an independently incorporated organization composed of the graduates and faculty of the New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy. The Psychoanalytic Society functions as a professional, scientific, and educational association.

The Continuing Education Program offers seminars and workshops to mental health professionals and to individuals with allied interests. One of the distinctive features of The Psychoanalytic Society is that its members come from varied theoretical backgrounds. All seminars and workshops are limited to an enrollment of 12 people in order to promote open discussion and the exchange of ideas.

The Psychoanalytic Society also sponsors:

- Lectures delivered by distinguished analysts. In recent years the Society has sponsored speakers such as John Gedo, M.D., Helen Block Lewis, Ph.D., and Hanna Segal, M.D.
- Biennial Conference on current issues in psychoanalysis. The themes of our past conferences have been: What is Psychoanalysis?, Continuity and Change in Psychoanalysis, and Love: Psychoanalytic Perspectives. The next conference, Unique Family Configurations, Neglected Family Ties: Psychoanalytic Perspectives, will be held in February, 1988.
- Referral Service is a community service offering moderate cost psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy. The Referral Service of The Psychoanalytic Society is staffed by graduates and senior matriculants of the New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy. Inquiries for information or referral may be made by calling (212) 755-0234. Michael Stern, Ph.D., Chairperson.
- Public Information Service speakers are available for lectures or group discussions on a variety of psychological topics. Judith Lasky, Ph.D. and Roni Cohen, Ph.D., chairpersons. For information call Ruth Marcus, Administrative Secretary 718-261-8864.

Registration

To register, complete the last page of this brochure and mail with appropriate fees to:

Ruth Marcus, Administrative Secretary
The Psychoanalytic Society
111-50 75th Road
Forest Hills, N.Y. 11375
Phone: (718) 261-8864

Enrollment in each course is limited to 12 people. Preference will be given to early registrants. Any course may be cancelled because of insufficient registration.

Fees

All fees are payable in advance. Participants must notify the Registrar two weeks in advance of the first meeting if they are unable to attend a course. The fee minus a $10 processing charge will then be refunded. After that time there will be no refunds.

The Psychoanalytic Society is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Category I continuing education for psychologists. The APA Approved Sponsor maintains responsibility for the program.

Countertransference

0001 Working with the More Difficult Patient: Clinical Uses of Countertransference

Issues related to work with difficult patients will be examined. Such patients include individuals often thought of as borderline, those with strong resistances, and those prone to acting out and relating negatively. Focus will be on recognizing and using one's countertransference reactions to better understand and work with these patients. Case material of instructor and participants will be discussed.

Richard Rutkin, Ph.D. — Associate Professor, The City College, C.U.N.Y.; Supervisor, Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy

Session I 4 C.E. hours
1 Saturday: June 6 $40.00
10:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.
(Noon to 1:00 P.M. lunch break)
27 West 86th Street, N.Y.C., Apt 1D

Session II
1 Saturday: June 13
10:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. (Noon to 1:00 P.M. lunch break)
● 328 Barr Avenue, Teaneck, N.J.

0002 The Therapeutic Use of Countertransference

Through a combination of readings in the literature on countertransference and role-playing of analytic sessions, this workshop is designed to increase participants' capacities to employ countertransference therapeutically. An object relations framework, deriving from the work of Racker, Kernberg, and Meissner will provide the theoretical underpinnings of the course.

Michael P. Varga, Ph.D. — Supervisor and Instructor, Washington Square Institute for Psychotherapy; Supervisor and Instructor, Advanced Institute for Analytic Psychotherapy; Instructor, Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy

3 Saturdays: June 6, 13, 20 4 C.E. hours
11:00 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. $40.00
24 Fifth Avenue, N.Y.C., Suite 416

0003 Love and Hate in the Countertransference

Patients evoke intense feelings in the analyst, and this course aims at examining how increased awareness of the emotional climate promotes growth and leads to analytic progress. The distinction between objective and subjective countertransference reactions will be explored and its use demonstrated by case material of the instructor and participants. The role of emotional communication in resolving difficult resistances will be discussed.

Robert S. Weinstein, Ph.D. — Faculty, Brooklyn Institute for Psychotherapy; Adjunct Professor, Union for Experimenting Colleges and Universities

2 Wednesdays: June 3, 10 3 C.E. hours
8:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. $30.00
41 Central Park West, N.Y.C., Apt. 3H

● Refers to a suburban location.

Gender

0004 Clinical Issues of Aging and Body Image in Women

Intrapsychic and cultural issues of aging and body image will be explored with reference to psychoanalytic, existential, and feminist literature. Clinical material from participants and instructor will be used.

Leonore H. Migdal, Ph.D. — Clinical Assistant Professor, Graduate School Program, New York University

4 Wednesdays: May 6, 13, 20, 27 6 C.E. hours
1:00 P.M. to 2:30 P.M. $60.00
245 West 107th Street, N.Y.C.

0005 The Daughter as a Projective Screen: Pathways to Individuation

An exploration of gender dynamics, with a focus on pre-oedipal mother-daughter relationships. Case material will be presented by seminar leader and participants and discussed from multiple vantage points including Freud, Kohut, Mahler, and recent feminist writers. Emphasis will be on understanding treatment issues.

Joan Zuckerberg, Ph.D. — Supervisor at Yeshiva University, National Institute for the Psychotherapies, and Brooklyn Institute for Psychotherapy

Section I 3 C.E. hours
1 Tuesday: May 25 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. $30.00
26 West 9th Street, N.Y.C., Suite 5E

Section II
1 Tuesday: June 16 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.
26 West 9th Street, N.Y.C., Suite 5E

0006 Gender Differences in Sense of Self

Greater proneness to depression on the part of females has been noted by a number of researchers and writers. Evidence that males are more prone to disorders of narcissism will be presented. Discussion and hypotheses to account for these gender differences will be offered. Clinical vignettes will be presented by the workshop leader and participants.

Fred Wright, Ph.D. — Associate Professor of Psychology, John Jay College of Criminal Justice; Book Editor, Group; Past President, The Psychoanalytic Society

1 Saturday: May 30 3 C.E. hours
9:00 A.M. to Noon $30.00
315 Central Park West, N.Y.C., Apt. 3W

0007 Women, Men, and Psychotherapy

This course will address the intersection of gender and psychoanalysis. Students will read relevant portions of the instructor's recently published book, Surviving Sexual Contradictions: A Startling and Different Look at a Day in the Life of a Contemporary Professional Woman (Macmillan 1986) and will discuss relevant personal and clinical experience.

Muriel Dimen, Ph.D. — Faculty, Department of Anthropology, Lehman College, C.U.N.Y.; Faculty, Seminar on Sexual Difference and Psychoanalysis, New York Institute for the Humanities, New York University

5 Wednesdays: May 20, 27, June 3, 10, 17 7 C.E. hours
Noon to 1:30 P.M. $70.00
312 West 20th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 5D

Special Problems in Professional Practice

0008 Writing About Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis

This workshop focuses on writing about psychoanalysis. The instructor will discuss dilemmas and solutions encountered in her own literary experience. (see course listing 0007)

Students are encouraged to share their own problem solving in writing about their work.

Muriel Dimen, Ph.D. — Faculty, Department of Anthropology, Lehman College, C.U.N.Y.; Faculty, Seminar on Sexual Difference and Psychoanalysis, New York Institute for the Humanities, New York University

1 Saturday: May 30 6 C.E. hours
9 A.M. to 4 P.M. (Noon to 1 P.M. lunch break) $60.00
312 West 20th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 5D

0009 Setting Fees: Psychoanalysts' Conflicts About Fees

Conflicts that many psychoanalysts have in setting their fees will be discussed. Society's messages about money, the lack of professional training concerning money matters, gender differences, socioeconomic background, and character type and their influences on fee setting will be explored in this seminar. The material will be drawn from readings and the experiences of the participants and the instructor.

Ella Lasky, Ph.D. — Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology at C.U.N.Y., Yeshiva University, and Rutgers University

3 Wednesdays: May 13, 20, 27 4 C.E. hours
Noon to 1:30 P.M. $40.00
144 West 86th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 1A

0010 The Pregnant Therapist: Transference, Countertransference, and Practical Issues

This seminar will cover the psychological aspects of pregnancy, patient's transference to the pregnant therapist, countertransference issues, and the practical issues involved in doing treatment when pregnant.

Roni O. Cohen, Ph.D. — Clinical Instructor, Cornell Medical Center, Payne Whitney Clinic

6 Thursdays: May 21, 28, June 4, 11, 18, 25 9 C.E. hours
1:15 P.M. to 2:45 P.M. $90.00
135 West 58th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 1A

0011 The Death of an Analyst: Clinical and Theoretical Considerations

This workshop is planned for an open exchange of clinical experiences around the death of the analyst. The effects of this event on patients and colleagues will be explored.

Rachelle Dattner, Ph.D. — Clinical Associate and Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, C.U.N.Y.; Interviewer, Yale University Video Archive for Holocaust Testimonies

Norma P. Simon, Ed.D. — Adjunct Associate Professor, Clinical Psychology, Teacher's College, Columbia University; Supervisor and Faculty, New Hope Guild

Phylliss Ziman-Tobin, Ph.D. — Clinical Associate and Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, C.U.N.Y.; Clinical Coordinator, Yale University Archive for Holocaust Testimonies; Associate Clinical Coordinator, Holocaust Resource Center, Kean College, Union, New Jersey

2 Thursdays: June 11, 18 3 C.E. hours
8:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. $30.00
500A East 87th Street, Corner York,
N.Y.C. Apt. 5A

0012 The Burned Out Analyst

Analytic work demands a constantly renewable source of creativity. This workshop addresses the issue of burnout and its effect on the personal and professional life of the analyst.

Kristina Lincoln, Ph.D. — Private Practice

1 Sunday: July 12 5 C.E. hours
10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. $50.00
(Noon to 2:00 P.M. lunch break)
123 West 79th Street, Suite 202, N.Y.C.

0013 Special issues in the Psychoanalytic Treatment of Single Women: A Case Seminar

Participants will explore the unique life stresses of single women over the age of 30. Transference, countertransference, and resistance encountered in the course of psychoanalytic therapy will be among the technical issues discussed through the use of case material presented by participants.

Susan Warshaw, Ed.D. — Associate Professor and Clinical Supervisor, Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Yeshiva University; Clinical Associate and Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, C.U.N.Y.

Anita Katz, Ph.D. — Faculty and Clinical Supervisor, New York Center for Psychoanalytic Training; Member, Institute for Psychoanalytic Training and Research

4 Tuesdays: June 2, 9, 16, 23 6 C.E. hours
8:30 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. $60.00
27 West 72nd Street, N.Y.C., Suite 1408

Treatment

0014 Psychodynamics of Psychosomatic Illness

The seminar will focus on primitive pathological configurations of defenses and object relations in the etiology of psychosomatic processes. The question of why psychosomatic illness emerges as opposed to perversions or psychoses will be addressed. Participants will present vignettes of patients in psychotherapy who suffer from a definitive psychosomatic illness such as asthma, ulcerative colitis, skin disorders, and so on. Attention will be paid to the vicissitudes of transference and countertransference phenomena.

Isaac Tylim, Psy.D. — Senior Psychologist, Maimonides Medical Center; Assistant Professor Psychiatry, Downstate Medical Center; Faculty, New Hope Guild

2 Tuesdays: July 7, 14 3 C.E. hours
6:15 P.M. to 7:45 P.M. $30.00
26 West 9th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 2D

0015 Object Relations and Psychoanalytic Technique

The British School of Object Relations will be discussed, first focusing on the writings of Winnicott, Fairbairn, and Guntrip, and then applying this revisionary model to our analytic treatment of patients. Clinical material will be presented by the instructor and participants.

Eileen J. Setzman, Ph.D. — Faculty, National Institute for the Psychotherapies; Faculty and Supervisor, Metropolitan Institute for Training in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

10 Wednesdays: May 13, 20, 27      15 C.E. hours
June 3, 10, 17, 24,      $120.00
July 1, 8, 15
1:00 P.M. to 2:30 P.M.
320 West 86th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 6A

0016 Treatment of Adolescents — A Workshop

Normal and pathological development in adolescence will be discussed along with their implications for treatment. Participants will be invited to present case material for discussion. Readings will be suggested.

Marvin D. Markowitz, Ph.D. — Director, Child and Adolescent Services, Oakwood Center, White Plains; Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, (Child), C.U.N.Y.; Supervisor, Metropolitan Institute for Training in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

3 Mondays: June 1, 8, 15      3 C.E. hours
8:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M.      $30.00

● Oakwood Center, 26 Oakwood Avenue, White Plains

0017 Working with Resistance in the Beginning of Treatment

This course will involve the participants in examining the material of early sessions to explore how patients and therapists become engaged in treatment. Nodal points of later phases of treatment may also be discussed.

Arthur E. Meinzer, Ph.D. — Assistant Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Albert Einstein College of Medicine

5 Tuesdays: May 12, 19, 26, June 2, 9      6 C.E. hours
8:00 P.M. to 9:15 P.M.      $60.00
328 West 11th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 1E

5 Thursdays: May 14, 21, 28, June 4, 11
7:00 P.M. to 8:15 P.M.

● 37 Glen Rock Road, Little Falls, N.J.

0018 A Psychoanalytic View of Adult Development

The study of human development extends beyond the resolution of childhood at the close of adolescence. Increasingly, the entire life cycle is being viewed as a continuous process of development and change. The course will present an overview of key aspects of adult development from a psychoanalytic perspective. Work, marriage, parenthood, and problems of middle age and old age will be studied with a focus on understanding the issues that arise in psychoanalytic treatment of adults.

Lane Glassman, Ph.D. — Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, C.U.N.Y.; Supervisor, Ph.D. and Psy.D.

Programs in Clinical Psychology, Yeshiva University

4 Fridays: May 15, 22, 29, June 5      6 C.E. hours
9:00 A.M. to 10:30 A.M.      $60.00
302 West 12th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 5G

0019 Projective Figure Drawings in Assessment, Diagnosis, and Therapy Evaluation

The interpretation of the House-Tree-Persons-Animal Drawings will be covered. The work of Buck, Hammer, Jolles, and Kaufman will be integrated with aspects of self theory to assess character and personality characteristics, self and object representations, and relationships and changes after therapy. Focus will be on developing skills in utilizing drawings with children, adolescents, and adults.

Marvin Leibowitz, Ph.D. — Supervisor and Instructor, Institute for Mental Health Education

4 Saturdays: May 9, 16, 23, 30      8 C.E. hours
1:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.      $80.00
● 42 South Maple Avenue, Ridgewood, N.J.

0020 Converting Psychotherapy to Psychoanalysis

Many patients for whom analysis is the treatment of choice initially reject this recommendation. This course will focus on the concept of psychotherapy as an initial treatment phase and on the technique of preparatory psychotherapy. Topics will include specific resistances to the meaning of analysis, potential countertransferences, and the effects of a preparatory phase on the subsequent analytic process. Participation presupposes clinical experience in conducting intensive, long-term psychoanalytic work.

Gil Katz, Ph.D. — Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry and Senior Supervisor, Downstate Medical Center; Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, Teacher's College, Columbia University; Clinical Associate and Supervisor, Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology, C.U.N.Y.

4 Fridays: June 5, 12, 19, 26      6 C.E. hours
Noon to 1:30 P.M.      $60.00
295 Central Park West, N.Y.C.

0021 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on the Nature and Treatment of Eating Disorders

Anorexia and bulimia are a multidetermined symptom complex which can occur in a variety of character disorders. This course will present a unified theoretical and treatment approach that will include object relations theory, self psychology, and the more classical conflict-defense orientation. Case material, including common treatment impasses, will be discussed.

Waltraud Ireland, Ph.D. — Faculty, Center for the Study of Anorexia and Bulimia

4 Tuesdays: June 8, 16, 23, 30      5 C.E. hours
7:45 P.M. to 9 P.M.      $50.00
241 Central Park West, N.Y.C., Suite 1A

● Refers to a suburban location.

Dreams

0022 The Clinical Use of Dreams in Psychotherapy: Contemporary Perspectives

Freud viewed dreams as "the royal road" to the unconscious. Contemporary developments within classical psychoanalysis, ego psychology, interpersonal theory, object-relations theory, and self-psychology have implications for our understanding and clinical use of dreams. This workshop will explore the use of the dream in psychotherapy in light of these developments.

Lewis Aron, Ph.D. — Supervising Psychologist, Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Roosevelt/St. Luke's Hospital Center; Adjunct Clinical Supervisor, Ferkauf Graduate School, Yeshiva University

3 Tuesdays: June 9, 16, 23
Noon to 1:30 P.M.

4 C.E. hours
$40.00

● 38 Middle Neck Road, Great Neck, N.Y.

3 Wednesdays: June 10, 17, 24
7 P.M. to 8:30 P.M.

40 West 86th Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 1A

0023 The Self in Dreams, Daydreams, and Fantasies

The self as represented in dreams, daydreams, and fantasies will be explored through selected readings (e.g. Khan, Klein, Kohut) and clinical material. The integration of these self representations through the course of treatment will be explored.

Harold B. Davis, Ph.D. — Associate Professor, The City College, C.U.N.Y.; Faculty and Supervisor, Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy

4 Thursdays: June 4, 11, 18, 25
12:30 P.M. to 2:00 P.M.

6 C.E. hours
$60.00

27 West 72nd Street, N.Y.C., Apt. 905

0024 Working with Dreams

Various approaches toward the understanding and use of dreams in the therapy process will be examined. Dreams will be viewed at different stages of therapy with particular attention given to manifestations of resistance, transference, and countertransference, as well as to the dream as reflective of character structure, core dynamic issues, existential and self-confrontational statements. These issues will be viewed from an interpersonal-humanistic perspective, with clinical material of students and instructor used as basis for discussion.

Barbara Dusansky, Ph.D. — Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Downstate Medical Center; Faculty and Supervisor, Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy; Faculty and Supervisor, Manhattan Institute for Psychoanalysis.

4 Thursdays: June 4, 11, 18, 25
8:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M.

6 C.E. hours
$60.00
